Photo #6 - Mrs. W. J. "Sophia" Baum, another winner in the contest. She must have won the "Loud Shirt" category. At least that is what she was wearing, a man's shirt. Don't know what the leg show is all about, but we like it.

Photo #7 - Harry "Flower Child" Goulding and Mrs. Baum. Note Harry's garters, ear rings and wig. He won the most unusual men's get-up.

Photo #8 - L. to r. Mr. J. E. Monroe, Mr. Norman Brubaker, and Mr. Charles Schmidt. These three lava lava clad drunks won the "Guts Award". The judges said it took "guts" to wear outfits like those.

Photo #9 - Mrs. Jim Fura and Mr. D. U. Donaldson. They both won a prize in the costume contest.

Photo #10 - Mrs. James E. Monroe and Mr. Paul Lanius, the most authentic Hawaiian costumed man and woman at the contest. Mrs. Monroe was wearing a dress made from a pattern purchased at Singer's "Hawaiian Ho" promotion. Mr. Lanius had a true lava lave brought from Hawaii. Note the lea of hibiscus.
